Goldberg Eyes End To Strike

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (UPI) — President Kennedy stepped into the nation's worst airlines tie-up today and ordered Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg to undertake new federal action to end the wildcat strike of flight engineers.

The strike has grounded three major airlines, and three others maintained only token service. According to industry estimates, the deep was costing the airlines five million dollars a day.

Sen. George Smathers, D., Fla., revealed in Washington that Kennedy had transmitted some "new and original" ideas on how to obtain a strike settlement to Goldberg, who was expected to put them into action shortly.

Goldberg met late this morning in Washington with Ron Brown, head of the Flight Engineers Union. Brown ordered his men back to work but claims they refused to return, in protest to a radical mediation board ruling favoring the flight engineers and plus of United Airlines to vote for a single flight crew union.

The engineers fear they will be railroaded up by the Airline Pilots Association and lose their seniority rights. Pilots outrun flight engineers on all airlines.

White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger confirmed that Kennedy had ordered new efforts by Goldberg but said the President was taking a personal hand in the matter.

The Washington development came as officials of the Flight Engineers Pan American chapter began to answer subpoenas issued by U.S. district court (Brooklyn) to testify how the strike began.

Pan American has charged that its union officials organized the wildcat walkout but the officials have denied this.

More than 75,000 airline employees were furloughed yesterday. Trans World Airlines, American Airlines and Eastern Airlines rolled out their planes into hangars and shut down completely. Pan American, National Airlines and Western Airlines were as good as closed with up to 85 per cent of their employees laid off and only a dozen numbers of planes flying.

An estimated 150,000 travelers in walking rooms across the country have discovered their airline tickets were useless except for refunds.

Youth Facing Burley Count For Burglary

BURLEY, Feb. 21 — A 14-year-old boy who appeared well on his way to making a career out of stealing from the Burley Fuel company is being held in juvenile custody after being arrested Saturday night in the act of burglarizing the establishment.

Five times previously police had been called to investigate burglaries of the Burley Fuel company, 1115 Conant avenue, And, about two weeks ago, $35 had been taken from the cash register in the office during the daytime.

Saturday night, Burley Police Officer Robert E. Warrel said the youth, under questioning, admitted being responsible for all of the five previous burglaries and of the daytime theft of the $35. In the other burglaries he got, each time, four or five dollars change that had been left in the cash register when the office closed.

Chief Warrel said the youth also admitted daytime thefts from cash registers in four other establishments in which he got a total of $110. The chief did not name the establishment.

It was pointed out that small dependent merchants would be passage of the present bill; large chain organizations still issue stamps. The bill requires merchants issuing stamps to redeem them with merchandise upon demand.

The meeting Tuesday was the first in a series of such discussions and while the legislature has been in session.

Trade Stamps Discussed at Noon Confab

The trading stamp question was center of discussion at the legislative discussion Tuesday noon at the Twin Falls American Legion hall.

Delegates attended the noontime-sponsored by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, the group with some exception seemed to agree the trading stamp issue should be taken care of by the merchants and not the government.

A few was voiced that restricting stamps by legislation would open the door to placing government restrictions on other sales promotion ideas.

SUITS DISMISSED.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Feb. 21 (UPI) — Federal District Judge Albert M. Smith dismissed yesterday three civil suits totaling $600,000 which arose from the 1956 "death march" of a marine corps platoon from Fort Island, S. C. Judge Griggs, president of Ore-Ida, Inc., announced today that beginning March 13 a pay increase of 10 cents per hour will be given all 950 employees of the Durley plant.

Griggs also said the payroll period will be changed from one week to two weeks, beginning March 10. This means employees will receive their last weekly check March 24. The next weekly check will be April 7.

The plant is non-union, Griggs said.

Distribution of School Fund Is Left to Solons

BOISE, Feb. 21 (UPI) — The senate education committee voted today to leave to the Idaho legislature the job of making a final choice of the method to be used in distributing state tax money to the public schools. The announcement came as the house of representatives faced action later in the day on the senate-approved $3 million dollar school appropriation, a key item in the proposed $7.9 million dollar general fund budget. Also up for consideration in the house during the afternoon was the three percent sales tax proposal introduced by Rep. George L. Crookham, Jr., R., Canyon, chairman of the house revenue and taxation committee. The sales tax bill automatically would reduce income and property tax levies and also would repeat the "head tax."

Solons Reject Bill to Change Gem Districts

BOISE, Feb. 21 (UPI) — The Idaho legislature refused yesterday to change the boundaries of the Gem state's two congressional districts despite assertions that it was the duty of the lawmakers to provide for more equal distribution of population.

Two conflicting measures were presented to redefine the boundaries and each was defeated.

Killed 14 to 41 was a measure which would have split Ada and Elmore counties between the two districts, shifted Custer and Lemhi counties to the Second district, and moved Owyhee county to the Second.

Then the first the vote of the current session killed 28 to 28 a Democratic-sponsored bill which would have put all of Ada county into the First district.

A measure to expand membership of the highway board from three to five also met death in the house by a 16 to 40 vote.

The bill originally would have expanded board membership and stripped the state highway engineer of his administrative duties. But it was amended to eliminate reference to the engineer.

Majority Leader Rep. Orval Hansen, R., Bonneville, told the house "we are faced with the responsibility of re-aligning the congressional districts to provide more equal distribution of population."

He said that present population of the First district is 257,000, compared with 409,000 in the Second district.

Passed

BOISE, Feb. 21 (UPI) — The Idaho house of representatives today passed 46 to 12 a senate-approved bill to appropriate $3 million dollars for state aid to schools in the next two years.

of money made available, $3 million dollars for the biennium under the budget approved by the joint finance-appropriation committee.

One bill will incorporate provisions of the present formula, adjusting all factors upward to take care of the additional money available.

Another bill will carry out the recommendations of the state department of education, which came up with a new distribution formula at the request of the 1959 legislature.

The third bill would use the department's basic formula, but would eliminate the so-called "teacher factor." That factor gives districts which have teachers with more experience and more education more money than districts which have less experienced teachers.

Introduced in the senate were nine general fund appropriation bills, including major ones making funds available to state institutions.

They included $9,779,851 for the University of Idaho, $5,627,809 for Idaho State college, $1,034,023 for the state tuberculosis hospital, $2,714,697 for the Nampa State school, $2,491,444 for state hospital south, $1,019,107 for industrial training school, $714,742 for the school for the deaf and blind and $45,860 for Lewis-Clark Normal school.

The senate approved 27 to 15 a bill eliminating the pre-legislative budget committee, which has functioned prior to the 1957, 1959 and 1961 legislatures.

$160,000 Sum

Approved for Benson Office

BOISE, Feb. 21 (UPI) — The joint senate finance-house appropriations committee has approved an appropriation of $160,000 to run the attorney general's office for the next two years. It was disclosed today.

The proposed budget represents an increase in the attorney general's appropriation of less than $5,000 from the current biennium.

It compares with $659,340 originally asked by Attorney General Frank L. Benson and $188,165 recommended by the pre-legislative budget committee.

Chairman Pete Cenarrusa, R., Blaine, of the house appropriations committee said debate on the attorney general's budget lasted more than an hour yesterday.

In addition, the boy told police he was involved in 10 purse snatching with two other juveniles, who were arrested last month and are awaiting court action. For good measure, he added that he was one of a group that tried to steal gasoline from the W. W. Paulson company, south of Burley, last week. The group was spotted and scared away.

The policemen then moved in and arrested him.

Monday, Burley Police Chief George Warrel said the youth, under questioning, admitted being responsible for all of the five previous burglaries and of the daytime theft of the $35. In the other burglaries he got, each time, four or five dollars change that had been left in the cash register when the office closed.

It's Great Day for U. S. Space Plans; Capsule Shot Success, 3 Men Picked for Space Trip

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (UPI) — This was the man-in-space program's greatest day thus far. For once the news was all good. After a succession of frightening failures, the big Atlas rocket was back in form. A one-ton capsule of the type expected to carry an American into space this year successfully flew 1,425 miles down the Atlantic missile range today in Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard, Jr., 36, air force Capt. Virgil L. Grissom, 34, and navy

John H. Glenn, Jr., 38; air force Capt. Leroy G. Cooper, 31, and Dr. Joseph A. Walker, 33, were tabbed for the "final pool." The others will be candidates for later manned space shots.

The national aeronautics and space administration made the announcement within three hours after it had racked up a near perfect success with an unmanned Project Mercury capsule sent on a rugged 1,425-mile flight over the Atlantic ocean aboard a beefed-up Atlas rocket.

Robert L. Gilruth, director of the 500 million dollar Mercury program, said he made the final selection of Glenn, Grissom and Shepard "on the basis of evaluating large amounts of medical and technical information in the 22-month training program."

Possibly as early as April, one of the select three will be tucked into a bell-shaped Mercury capsule mounted atop a Redstone rocket for a flight 115 miles into space and about 290 miles over the Atlantic ocean from Cape Canaveral.

After Hall returned to his home in Crescent City, Calif., he was extradited in January to Idaho to face the robbery charge. He is in custody of Gooding County Sheriff Keith Anderson and no date has been set for his trial.

Glenn, Grissom and Shepard will undergo final mental and physical examinations and dry run rehearsals on the ground between now and the day that one of them will be named for the historic mission.

Gilruth said, "It is not possible to forecast exactly when the first manned mission will take place." However, indications are that one more unmanned test of the capsule will be attempted next month with a Redstone, paving the way for a manned shot on the next rocket.

The other four astronauts—navy Lieut. Cmdr. Malcolm S. Carpenter, air force Capt. Leroy G. Cooper, Jr., navy Lieut. Cmdr. Walter M. Schirra, Jr., and air force Maj. Donald K. Slayton—will still be eligible for the first orbital mission, possibly later this year with the Atlas booster.

After Hall returned to his home in Crescent City, Calif., he was extradited in January to Idaho to face the robbery charge. He is in custody of Gooding County Sheriff Keith Anderson and no date has been set for his trial.

The commission decision was the outcome of a meeting between city and state highway officials.

Wednesday, the plan received the endorsement of Newton and Derrick at the meeting.

At present, westbound trucks are routed from Kimberly road to Fourth avenue south and west, then on Washington street to Eighth street west. Here the trucks turn onto Eighth street west, proceed two blocks to Main avenue, then turn left on Main avenue. Trucks then make another turn left from Main avenue onto Addison avenue west.

The new system would route trucks straight on Washington street to Addison avenue. Highway officials estimate that about half the truck traffic would continue straight north on Washington street to connect with highway 93 north of Twin Falls.

The rest of the trucks would turn left onto Addison avenue west to continue west on highway 30. Washington street between Eighth street west and Addison avenue west—presently one-way—would be

BUILDING DEDICATED

NAMPA, Feb. 21 (UPI) — A new $300,000 home office building of Canyon Mutual Life company was dedicated here yesterday.

Solons Reject Bill to Change Gem Districts

told the house that the measure was the biggest bill introduced in the history of the Idaho legislature and the most important.

The senate killed by a vote of 16 to 25 a house-approved measure increasing Idaho's minimum wage from 75 cents to $1 per hour.

Attached to the bill after it passed the house, however, were two amendments. One exempted workers 18 years of age and younger. The other specified that tips earned by waitresses should be included in determining whether the state income tax law.

Richard Gregory, field auditor for Idaho income tax division, answered questions of Exchange club members on income tax during the club's regular Tuesday noon meeting at the Rogerson hotel. Gregory also outlined the background of the state income tax law.

Hubs caps Missing

Lesley Howells, 26, Maple avenue, reported the theft of two spinner type hubcaps from his 1951 Ford to Twin Falls police Tuesday morning. The hubcaps were taken driving a car with noisy mufflers. He was cited Monday by Twin Falls police.

Violates Restriction

Sen. William J. Dee, D., Idaho, said the amendments "take all the heart out of this bill."

The senate, which had 41 bills on its third-reading calendar at the start of the day, passed 16 measures and killed two, including the minimum wage measure.

Twenty-one bills were introduced in the senate, the final day on which measures can be introduced by other than four committees.

Among the bills passed was one which was the outgrowth of a political feud involving Gov. Robert E. Smylie, Republican chairman of the state land board, and four Democratic members.

Democrats, last spring, held up the reappointment of Arthur Roberts, manager of the Southern Idaho Timber Protective Association, as a district fire warden on grounds he was a potential Republican candidate for the state legislature. He did not file for the nomination, however, and was re-appointed. But he was nominated in the general election.

At the time, Smylie was critical of the action by the Democrats, contending it was an infringement on Roberts' rights as a citizen.

The bill provides for appointment of fire wardens by the state forest instead of by the land board. It passed the senate 36 to 0.

The second bill killed was one which would have authorized the state board of health to adopt regulations of the United States public health service covering the distribution of milk. Opponents contend existing law is satisfactory. The bill had passed the house.

Debate over the redistricting measures took up a good share of the day for the house.

Rep. Allan Shepard, R., Ada, said he was opposed to both bills. He contended that Idaho's two representatives in congress should be selected at-large and the two districts should be abolished entirely.

Hansen argued that if all of Ada county were put in the first district, it would be in a position to dominate the district. "It would not leave the north out in the cold," he said.

There was general agreement that putting any of Ada county in the first district would help to unify the northern and southern part of the state.

Approved 53 to 3 was a bill providing a safety code for the operation of boats on Idaho waters. It would also require identification of boats and registration fees.

A proposed amendment to the constitution which would abolish probate and justice courts as constitutionally established courts passed the house 42 to 0. The measure would clear the way for the legislature to establish a system of inferior courts in Idaho.

League Meets Set

Unit one of the League of Women Voters will meet at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Richard High. Unit two will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Leland Davidson. Discussion will be on "Realities of economic development at home and abroad."

The commission endorsed an application by the Twin Falls housing authority for preliminary loan to conduct a survey in the city for additional low-income housing.

L. B. Harper, director of the housing authority, said a prior check had established need of additional housing units for elderly persons. If constructed, he said, the units would be in the downtown area to allow easy access to shopping facilities. The survey would determine the best location for 30 to 40 duplex apartments in the downtown area.

The commission, City Manager Derrick, and the Twin Falls planning and zoning commission will meet with Ronald Thompson, Butte, Mont., planning specialist, either Thursday evening or Friday evening.

Derrick read the commission a letter from Thompson saying he would be available for a meeting late this week. Some months ago, the commission approved use of Thompson as a planning and zoning consultant, but he has yet to visit Twin Falls.

The commission proclaimed March "Red Cross month" in the city.

Men John

After reviving his shoe store in Jackson, Mich., Hutchinson joined with Thomas Sperry to make the stamp-for-premiums idea a nationwide success as S & H green stamps.

Now 86, Hutchinson can recall some fabulous booms in trading stamps "but nothing to match the craze that has swept the country in the last decade and is continuing at a steady pace."

And the boom is not likely to stop, while some government officials and business groups have criticized the green stamp, it still attracts 40 million families last year.

Uses Approach Bizarre

Some of the uses for them have approached the bizarre, Hutchinson admits.

For instance, a Florida minister offers members of his church five green stamps each for attending Sunday evening services.

A Utah private school received three buses for 7,708,000 stamps.

"And when I started the business, we gave customers pictures and books—a fairly simple exchange," Hutchinson recalls.

Damages Set at

$750 in Mishap

BURLEY, Feb. 21—Damages totaling $750 resulted from a three-car accident near the intersection of 14th street and Malta avenue at 11:35 p.m. Saturday.

Terry McInosh, 21, Burley, driving a 1953 Pontiac, turned left off 14th street onto Malta avenue, struck the curb on the east side of the street and rammed into two cars parked along the street.

A 1953 Ford owned by W. D. Snook, Burley, received an estimated $250 damage. The other car, a 1951 Pontiac owned by Lewis Sleight, Burley, received $75 damage and McIntosh's car received an estimated $350 damage.

Burley police officers report there was approximately $75 damage caused to the street curb, lawns and small trees.

No citation was issued.

C. of C. Manager Reports on Bills

William Grange, Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager, reported on recent developments of the check bill and the trading stamp bill during the regular Monday noon meeting of the Chamber's commercial division.

He said the check law, which would make the passing of no account checks for more than $25 a felony, is out of committee and has a good possibility of being passed, according to a Twin Falls county legislator.

The trading stamp bill, which would outlaw trading stamps, is also out of committee with a "do not pass" recommendation. Grange noted that the future of this bill is still doubtful.

Deadline Given

For Farm Trees

Deadline for applying for trees for Idaho farms and forests from the University of Idaho is Friday, March 10, reminds C. Warren Daugh, Twin Falls county agent.

Interested persons should call the county agent's office for a price list and order blank, Daugh said. Four different classes of trees are available, including bushy hardwoods, tall hardwoods, tall evergreens and dense evergreens.

He explained that purposes for which the trees may be used include forest planning, farm windbreaks, farm woodlot products, program trees and soil bank programs.

TRUE TRAGEDY OF LUMUMBA

The new chaos in the Congo, following upon the death of Patrice Lumumba, gives the world's responsible leaders—one of the worst dilemmas they have faced in this century.

It is enough of a problem simply to try to set any struggling young nation on a sound course. The difficulty is multiplied incredibly when the new country is so torn apart and so ill prepared for self-government as is the Congo.

As if that were not sufficient, the Russian communists have seen in this situation a golden chance to build a broad beach-head in Africa. So they have converted the Congo's steaming jungles into a cold war arena.

Lumumba's death at the hands of Katanga tribesmen compounds the confusion. Civil war would be a danger even if all outsiders were in complete accord in efforts to induce peace. With Soviet agitation, done in the name of "justice," the peril is far greater.

Undoubtedly Lumumba will now be made a martyr by his followers. It goes without saying that it would have been much better for him to have had a fair trial in a reasonably calm atmosphere.

But his passing is no loss to the cause of good government as such. As his country's first leader he was a total failure. He spawned chaos. And when he could not cope with his problems he invited Soviet technicians to help him, which is like asking the devil to help put out a fire.

Whether the U. N. can find a solution, whether it will be permitted by the obstructing Soviet Union to try to effect one, these are now the grave questions before the world.

With native hatreds unleashed anew by this tragic death, the situation may already be unmanageable.

If, however, genuine order can still be established then responsible leaders should move with all speed to achieve it. And they should let the world understand, in ringing terms, that the Kremlin will bear the blame for any major outside interference with that objective.

When Lumumba was killed, Moscow lost its servant in the Congo. Should it now, in revenge, help to foment civil war, no decent man anywhere on earth should be unaware.

In its agony of overpopulation, poverty and widespread disorder the world has desperate need for constructive progress. It cannot afford illusions about men, like those in Moscow or Peking, who traffic in these lies to advance the spread of their stifling tyranny.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—The first serious trial of the Kennedy-Goldberg experiment in labor-management negotiations will be staged within a month by the union leader believed to be the President's warmest sympathizer in the field.

—Walter P. Reuther.

Compared to the perils involved in contract negotiation in the automotive industry, the tentative settlement which Goldberg achieved in last month's tug operators' strike in New York was so much child's play.

And, in fairness to all the parties involved, most of the hard bargaining on behalf of the public was done by New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

NEED FOR RESTRAINT — The president of the United Automobile Workers will then begin contract talks with the first key industry to be so involved under the new administration. The outcome will show how the President, who was generally backed by organized labor last year, will deal with a possible strike threat, and the danger of another round of inflation which the pay increases and consequent price increases for such a basic economic product as automobiles and related industries will occasion.

Administration advisers anticipate that Reuther may try to show restraint in order not to embarrass his friend in the White House. But he is under severe pressure from local officials and unions to demand new concessions—especially a shorter work week with no thinning of the pay envelope.

HARD ORDER-TO-FILL—Moreover, to maintain his status in organized labor's hierarchy, he must match the gains which David J. McDonald achieved for his steel workers after the 116-day strike in 1959.

His political association with the White House may also prove embarrassing for Reuther. Whereas his men expected no help from a Republican regime in their disputes with the "big three," the rank and file feels that he should cash in on labor's whole-hearted support of President Kennedy in the close presidential contest.

The rank-and-file's principal demand centers on a shorter work week with no pay cut, retirement at 62 instead of 65, more liberal pensions, fringe benefits and the same kind of an employer-financed health insurance program that McDonald won for his men.

MYRIAD ECONOMIC CONSIDERATIONS — A year ago, according to reports in the files of the McClellan-Kennedy investigating committee, Reuther was urging a four-day, 32-hour week with no reduction from the 40-hour schedule. As a member and counsel for that committee, respectively, President Kennedy and Attorney General Robert Kennedy have been aware of this attitude.

Now, however, due largely to layoffs resulting from automation, the unions are talking of a 30-hour week without a reduction. And, inspired by congressional discussion of permitting men to retire at age 62 under the social security provisions that now apply only to women, the union leaders now want a mandatory retirement age fixed at 62 or younger.

Obviously, such gains, if not accompanied by a large boost in productivity, would raise the general level of prices. They would also add to the disadvantages which this country now suffers from in its export trade and in the balance of payments deficits.

They would come at a time, too, when foreign manufacturers are cutting the prices of their models, and stepping up sales campaigns to meet the competition of American imports. They are steadily adding to their list of domestic dealers and outlets.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS—As he told the recent convention of the National Industrial Conference board, President Kennedy is committed to a policy of wage-price stability. Labor Secretary Goldberg assured them that, although he had been a union official and key negotiator in the steel strike, he did not consider himself beholden to any class or segment of the economy.

President Kennedy promised, too, that he would not be "anti-business," asking the cooperation of both labor and management. Many of his listeners, however, commented that they "would measure his words by his deeds." The approaching automobile negotiations should give them their answer.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

THE NEWS-DAY-FOR-BOISE

The Idaho senate unanimously voted to kill the Boise city charter. This follows similar action in the Idaho house where only Ada county Rep. Carl Burt, himself a former Boise councilman, opposed the change.

Whether Boise will fare better without the charter than it did with it remains to be seen. The previous time the charter was abandoned, some half century back, was only an interruption. At that time the city returned to the charter form of government.

Residents of Boise had no announcement from the city council of any plan to scrap the charter. As of this date, the council has not announced this intention. But members of the council, and the mayor, made written pleas to the legislature to scrap the charter—further official city action that was kept from the public.

This is not the kind of government that has been traditional in Boise. Year after year, the council has been determined to place before the public all official action. In view of this precedent, the Statesman favored an expression of opinion from the voters before the charter was abandoned. We especially believed a vote important since, under Idaho law, it will become impossible for the city ever to revert to the charter from of government again. For that reason alone, a public discussion of the involved matters would have been in order.

One Boisean, who has made a study of the situation, and who professes to be irritated over the general tax situation, says that the charter elimination will place a limit on some city taxes. Under the charter, it appears, there was no such limit. Should this be a correct appraisal of one part of the change, many a Boisean will applaud.

In any event, the die has been cast. In the community's interest, everyone should cooperate. We have great need for progress in several directions.—Idaho Daily Statesman.

WHERE YOUR MONEY GOES

A good exercise for people who now have their W-2 forms and a pencil in hand has been worked out by the department of commerce. It will show how much you, as an individual, are paying toward each function of government.

They tell you to mark down your income to this: add 82 per cent, which would represent the average amount of excise, corporation or other direct or indirect taxes you pay to Uncle Sam.

Take this total and then do your own arithmetic: Per Cent of Total Tax

Major national security 67
Interest on public debt 11
Veterans 6
Agriculture 6
Labor and welfare 6
Commerce, housing, space technology 4
International 3
Natural resources 3
General government 2

If your total federal taxes amount to $1,000, for example, $370 of your money is going for the army, navy, marines, air force, and other defense activities. Only $20 is going for the general expenses of running the government, which most people associate with bureaucracy. The climbing national debt, which $116 out of each $1,000, and the infinitesimal $20 you are paying to reduce that interest, should be enlightening.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

The meaning of this is money: If you haven't the money, you buy on time.

WASHINGTON

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Severe winter is the growing blemish of State Dean Rusk's capacity operation of industry. At the end of 1960 less than half of the productive capacity of the steel-smelting industry was used.

"The U. S. share of industrial output of capitalist countries has fallen from 64 per cent in 1950 to 47.48 per cent in 1959."

"The U. S. share in the exports of capitalist countries sank from more than 30 per cent in 1948 to 21 per cent in 1953 and to 17.4 per cent in 1959."

"Nevertheless, American monopolies have been and remain the principal usurers and exploiters of the people. One is fully justified in concluding that both in the economic field as well as in the field of international politics, the main power of capitalism has entered a phase of growing difficulties and crises—the phase of its decline."

"And it can be said with confidence that the near future will be marked with new successes by the united forces of world socialism, the working class and the national liberation movement."

"Whereas in 1950 the Soviet Union produced less than 30 per cent of the output of the United States, it now produces roughly 60 per cent... By 1965 the USSR will outstrip the United States in volume of production and will outstrip the United States in per capita production by 1970."

"The victory of the USSR in competition with the United States, the victory of the whole socialist system over the capitalist system, will be the biggest turning point in history."

"Careful examination of that speech—reporting to the Russian people on the manifesto drawn up by delegates from the Communist parties from 81 countries in Moscow last November—reveals the Russian leader's real intentions to study."

"Here, in translations just made available in this country, are excerpts of Khrushchev's policies, in his own words:

"American imperialists lay claim to the whole world living under their heel and threaten humanity with a rocket and nuclear war..."

"(But) for the first time in history, the present balance of power in the world arena enables the socialist camp... to pursue the completely realistic task of compelling the imperialists, under threat of the downfall of their system, not to unleash world war."

"It is perfectly obvious that the establishment of a world system of socialism... undermines the support for capitalism, intensifies its general crisis... This refers both to the entire system of capitalism and to its main power, the United States."

"The mightiest power of capitalism has found itself most affected by the crisis... In the postwar period, the United States has experienced three critical production slumps, 1948-49, 1953-54 and 1957-58."

"During the past year, U. S. industrial production increased by only two per cent... In the USSR production increased 10 per cent in 1960..."

"The richest country of the capitalist world is the country of the largest chronic unemployment."

"Additional information may be obtained at the Twin Falls post office."

"Snow Shield"

Soviets Started First, Still Lead Rocket Booster Field

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (UPI)—After World War II some scientists Venus and expected to reach the both the American and Russian planets in mid-May. This spectacular shot was considered by their thoughts toward space.

In December, 1948, Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal made a cryptic reference to a report to an "Earth satellite vehicle."

But both countries gave more thought to rocket missiles than to spacecraft. Russia started first and moved faster. She built rockets capable of delivering massive warheads of the pre-hydrogen bomb era. This country waited for a compact hydrogen warhead before going into high gear.

So when the space age dawned, Russia possessed boosters at least twice as powerful as America's best and was able to launch tons of instruments into orbit while the United States was firing only pounds. This is still the case, although the Saturn may close the gap in late 1964 or early 1965.

In 1955 both countries announced they would launch scientific satellites as part of the program for the international geo-physical year (IGY) which ended Dec. 31, 1958.

On Oct. 4, 1957, Russia launched Sputnik 1, the first artificial satellite of the Earth, and since then has achieved many other space firsts. They include the first sun satellite, first rocket hit on the moon, first photographs of the moon's far side, first launching of animals into orbit, and the first recovery of animal astronauts.

The Soviet's latest accomplishment was the launching Feb. 11 of tion of deep space. This probe, launched into a solar orbit between the paths of Earth and Venus, also set a record for long-distance radio communication of 22,500,000 miles.

This country also launched the first prototype weather communications, navigational, reconnaissance and missile warning satellites.

The United States has a 10-year program which calls for putting man in orbit briefly around the Earth for a year or less, landing instruments and mobile robots on the moon, launching astronomical observatories, putting scientific satellites around Mars and Venus, having a manned observatory in an Earth orbit, and sending men around the moon and back.

Some time after 1960 it hopes to put men on the moon.

Russia has not published its official space program. But U. S. space experts say she could have put men in orbit long since. They expect her to do it as early as last September and wonder why she didn't.

New Home Buyer Fund Is Available

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 21 (AP)—A vice president of the United States Savings and Loan League said yesterday the federal home loan board has taken steps to make more money available for home buying.

M. L. Dye, Salt Lake City, issued the statement upon his return from a meeting in Washington, D. C.

A major step taken, he said, was on the amount a federally-insured savings and loan association can borrow from its district federal home loan bank.

Up to now the association could borrow up to 12½ per cent of its own savings. Now, Dye said, the association may borrow up to 15 per cent.

In any case, both countries obviously are aiming at manned exploration of the moon and, some day, of Mars and Venus, too. Their scientists already have proved that space is not empty—it pulsates with energetic radiations and particles, and with fast-moving clouds of ionized gas spewed from the stormy sun.

These findings have been exciting. But on Mars, at least, scientists hope and more than half expect to make the most exciting discovery of all—that life can and does exist on another world.

The Twin Falls county commission Monday signed an agreement with the state to spray state highway roadsides against noxious weeds. The state will pay the county $1,300 as its share of the program. The agreement is effective from Jan. 1 through Dec. 31, 1961.

The commission also accepted an offer of R. Schwendeman to pay $588 in taxes levied against the now defunct Diamond hardware company for 1960. The company was dissolved June 30, 1960. The county originally levied taxes against the firm for the entire year. Schwendeman filed an application later asking the taxes be vacated and voided.

U. S. Is Blamed For Threat of Reds in China

NEW YORK. Feb. 21 (UPI)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur has blamed the United States for the threat posed by Communist China.

MacArthur said in a statement that the failure of this country to press its military advantage in Korea "established Red China as a mighty military colossus to threaten the future freedom of all men."

"We had within our grasp" at the time, he added, "control of its ability to wage modern war for generations to come. Let us not make such a mistake again, let us perish."

MacArthur's statement was read by Gen. Courtney Whitney, an aide at a "Soldier for Freedom" awards luncheon.

The event honored MacArthur and Philippine Ambassador Carlos P. Romulo, who received Soldier for Freedom plaques from the Morris Morgenstern foundation.

T.F. Debaters Take Part in Utah Turney

A Twin Falls high school team, composed of William Ellis and Ryan Robertson, placed in the top 28 of 140 teams in the class A division at the Weber College Silver Jubilee forensic tournament held Friday and Saturday at Ogden, Utah. It was the best showing of local teams in the tourney. They were eliminated in the eighth round.

The second best class A showing of the local group was by the team of John Sackett and Jeffrey Cunningham, which was eliminated in the seventh round.

In class B debate, Richard Hammer and Robert Sutcliffe placed in the top eight of the 140 teams entered. They were eliminated after six rounds.

Other Twin Falls' teams were Bruce Roberts and John Robinson, and Almon Anderson, Jr., and Kenna Rae Webb, both class A open division; Jon Abegglen and James Vissers, and Barbara Adams and Barbara Rosendahl, both class B, and Jeanne Stettler and Janet Baltzar, and Nancy Cohen and Lori Lake, both women's division class A teams.

Alternate team member was Ronald Brackett.

Richard B. Johnson, Twin Falls high school debate coach, noted that the Weber college tournament is the world's largest debate contest, with some 1,400 students from 120 high schools in Nevada, Utah and Idaho participating. Johnson and Lawrence Silvey, assistant debate coach, accompanied the Twin Falls teams to Ogden.

Several members of the Twin Falls debating teams also took part in oratorical and extemporaneous speaking at the tourney, but none were among the finalists.

Johnson reported that, beginning Thursday, the Twin Falls debate students will compete among themselves for the honor of attending the district debate tournament March 17 and 18 at Minico high school.

He also noted that a majority of the local students, who attended the Weber college tournament, will enter the fourth district declamation festival March 11 at Kimberly high school. Winners of third and fourth districts will compete at the regional declamation festival March 25 at Twin Falls high school.

Labor Plans Get-to-Work Conferences

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 21 (UPI)—Leaders of organized labor decided yesterday to sponsor a series of get-to-work conferences, culminating with a rally in Washington to pin-point the plight of the unemployed.

The AFL-CIO executive council approved plans for the conferences as proposed by the United Auto Workers union. The meetings are designed to bring together labor, business, civic and political groups to consider steps to spur economic recovery. Dates and sites of the conferences are being worked out.

The council also urged congress to give emergency preference to President Kennedy's proposed 1.2 billion dollar extra aid to the nation's 5 million idled workers.

The AFL-CIO chiefs opened a 10-day winter meeting yesterday. Many were suggesting a joint demand in behalf of organized labor that business adopt a code of ethics similar to those adopted by labor unions of the recent labor racketeers scandal.

The leaders said they intend to bring up the matter at the union sessions here because of the recent pleas of guilty and no defense made by the nation's largest electrical equipment manufacturing concern to charges of price fixing.

Coordinator of Forest Service Sets T.F. Visit

JAMES Wise, Coordinator for the Intermountain region of the United States forest service, will be at the Twin Falls Sawtooth national forest office this week.

Wise is making an analysis to determine the location of needed horse and foot trails for all forests in the intermountain region, according to J. L. Sevy, forest supervisor.

While in the Twin Falls area, Wise will visit the eight districts of the Sawtooth national forest and confer with rangers on a long range horse and foot trails program for their district.

After the needed trails are determined, Sevy said, priorities will be assigned from the Twin Falls office for projects to be done in the next five years.

Sevy added that emphasis will be placed on improving trail systems in areas where roads don't exist and aren't contemplated and in areas where heavy public use exists or is anticipated.

Johnson's 2 Fliers Die in Plane Crash

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 21 (UPI)—The pilot and copilot of a luxuriously equipped private plane used by Lyndon Johnson in his campaign for vice president were killed Sunday when it crashed on a brushy hillside 60 miles west of here. Johnson was at his Texas ranch at the time.

There were no passengers aboard. Harold Teague, 39, Austin, was the pilot who had flown Johnson many miles in the presidential campaign. The copilot was Charles Williams, 37, Houston.

They flew from the Austin Municipal airport to the landing strip at the LBJ ranch Sunday night but turned back because of the weather.

The big, white Convair 240 was apparently being flown to the ranch to ferry Johnson back to Washington.

Johnson went to the scene. "I've lost two wonderful friends," he said.

Pallbearers were Dale Bodily, Kenneth Bodily, Reed Long, Dean Phillips, Keith Phillips and Drew Phillips.

Floral arrangements were under the direction of Jeanne Adams, Janet Child, Anita Randall, Beth Walker, Charlotte Peterson and Beulah Bowen.

Military graveside rites were under the direction of Carey Hilling, acting commander, and Ben Chancellor, chaplain. Bodily dedicated the grave.

Kennedy to Visit Canada; 2 Chiefs Study Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (AP) — President Kennedy and Canadian Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker met yesterday and agreed on foreign policy objectives.

Then Diefenbaker returned to Ottawa and announced to parliament that Kennedy has accepted an invitation to visit Canada.

This is the first such invitation Kennedy has accepted since becoming President a month ago.

The Canadian prime minister flew into Washington yesterday morning and spent three hours with Kennedy at the White House.

After they parted, the White House issued a joint statement in which the two leaders reaffirmed the determination of their nations to work together for peace and freedom in the world.

Reporting to the Canadian Senate and house of commons late in the day, Diefenbaker told of Kennedy's impending visit to Canada.

The Canadian prime minister said he had invited the new President to come north before the current parliamentary session ends. That session is expected to wind up in early summer.

The prime minister was not present when she died. He had conferred in Washington yesterday with President Kennedy and reported on his trip last night to parliament.

Review Is Given
At Annual Event
Of Burley DAR

BURLEY, Feb. 21 — A book review, "Testament of Trust" by Paul Baldwin, was given by Mrs. Roger W. Thomas, Kimberly, for members and guests of John Day chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, during its annual George Washington silver tea Saturday afternoon in a lounge room of the Masonic temple.

Mrs. Thomas took her audience on a journey through the 12 months or hours that the book portrays. Mrs. Thomas stated that the book is perhaps the most interesting and inspirational of all Miss Baldwin's writings.

This annual event observed by all local and national chapters of the DAR commemorated the 220th birthday anniversary of the first president.

The program included three selections sung by a girls trio from the Magic Valley Christian college, Allie, Alison. They were Marilyn Hoffman, Nancy Hoofnagel and Bonnie Dehoff.

The DAR is an organized group of women from both the north and the south whose endeavors are directed largely toward perpetuation of the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence. All members of the chapters have ancestors who served in the Revolutionary war and some members of the John Day chapter are descendants of a man who fought in Washington's army. Further objects of the DAR are the developments of an enlightened public opinion on the fostering of patriotic citizenship, spokesman of the group stated.

Members and guests were served from a linen covered table centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations and miniature flags flanked by red candles in crystal holders. Silver appointments completed the decor. Pouring were Mrs. J. P. Mahoney, immediate past regent, and Mrs. J. L. Driskell, newly-elected regent.

Guests were Mrs. Thomas, and Mr. H. J. Zilliox, both Kimberly; Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mrs. Gerald Bryant, Mrs. Emilie J. Helseth, Mrs. A. R. Coleman, Mrs. Gertrude Elson and Mrs. Hazel Dunn, all Burley, and Mrs. George W. DeHoff and Mrs. Pauline Underwood, both Albion.

The group now has 21 members and extends an invitation to anyone to join who has a heritage of service in the American Revolution.

The chapter honored Mrs. Mahoney during a farewell dinner held at the National hotel Monday evening. She was presented a gift from the group. The immediate past regent is moving from Burley this week to make her home in Ketchum where she and her husband will operate a motel.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Every child has a friend and favorite playmate and, however fond of each other they may be, they will have an occasional spat. The 4-year-old comes in crying, "He hit me. I don't like him anymore," while his mother wipes his face clean and says, "There, there, go out and play nicely with Freddy. I'm sure he didn't mean it." A few knits, a few "He did so's" and he goes out and the thing is forgotten.

This goes on from childhood to adolescence and it requires sound common sense and good will on the part of parents to smooth the rough edges and calm the storms that children bring to their attention lest a neighborly friendship be shattered.

Mothers are quick to rise to the defense of their children, as they should be, but the wiser ones think twice and count to a hundred many times before saying a word to the other mother, remembering that this give and take between the children, of whatever age, is part of their education in living.

This is when they get their first and often their best lessons in human nature and its behavior. Let them have these experiences without interference if at all possible.

Most of the spats children have are nothing more than sharp differences of opinion about whose bike is the best, whose father can fight whose, whose dress is the prettiest, who paid for the sodas last time. If these are left to the children to settle themselves they will do no harm but if the adults decide to take a hand in the matter the real trouble starts.

The telephone is too handy at times, such times as when Johnny comes home with a bloody nose or Katy arrives without a beanle, lost in the hastic with the teasing boy down the street. Wait before lifting the phone. The mother at the other end of the line may be patching up her young hopefuls at the same time and not feeling any better for it than her opposite number.

The neighborhood bully is not in question here, just the normal healthy children who are learning by experience how to get along.

Billie L. Parker

Exchange Vows

WENDELL, Feb. 21—Shades of orchid, violet and purple set the color theme for the marriage ceremony Thursday evening, Feb. 16, when Billie Lee Parker became the bride of Edmond Eugene Mason.

Bishop Melvin T. Allred performed the nuptial rites at 7 o'clock at the LDS church in the presence of 50 relatives and close friends.

An archway entwined with greenery and flanked with tall white baskets of orchid and white gingham formed the background for the bridal party.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ella Mae Parker, Wendell, and Mason is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Mason, Wendell.

For the double ring ceremony, the bride wore a gown of imported lace over taffeta. The lace Basque bodice was styled with scalloped Sabrina neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The three-tiered lace skirt was floor-length. A Juliet cap of seed pearls and sequins held her fingerlip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of cymbidium orchids accented with orchid feathered carnations tied with white satin.

C. L. Jones, Rigby, escorted his niece down the chapel aisle.

Olive Ann Parker attended her sister as maid of honor. She was attired in a purple taffeta sheath dress with a short matching chiffon train and a purple feathered chignon clip. She carried a colonial bouquet of purple hyacinths.

Bridesmaids, Paula Ydarraga, Sally Rydahl and Barbara Gilchrist, wore sheath dresses of lilac taffeta fashioned identical to the maid of honor. Each wore a lilac feathered chignon clip and carried a colonial bouquet of violets.

Kelly Frith, Rigby, niece of the bride, dressed in an eyelet embroidered cotton frock, a replica of the bride's gown, was flower girl. She carried a nose-ay of orchid feathered carnations. Ringbearer was Rodney Mason, a nephew of the bridegroom.

Nuben Mason, Buhl brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Gary Mason, Hamilton, Mont.; Fred Marolf and James Martin, Wendell, served as ushers.

Mrs. Parker, mother of the bride, was soloist. She sang "I'm the Wedding Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. L. N. Byington, who also played the wedding music.

Mrs. Parker chose a street-length periwinkle embroidered marquisette jacket dress. The mother of the bridegroom wore a street-length navy blue silver flecked nylon dress. Each wore a corsage of red rosebuds.

Approximately 200 guests attended the reception from 8 to 10 p.m. at the church recreation hall.

Mrs. Ronald Gisler was charge of the guest book. Gifts were arranged by Mrs. Jackie Brown, Mrs. Charlie Hawkins and Mrs. Fred Marolf.

The wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Gene Barrus and Mrs. Ressa Stevenson, was served by Mrs. Jed Hansen. Mrs. Laurence Frith, Rigby, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Gene Moore, presided at the punch bowls.

Head Cold Forces Ingo to Call Off Workout; Champ Drills Behind Closed Door

By The Associated Press

Ingemar Johansson called off a scheduled Miami Beach workout Monday because of a slight head cold. Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson worked out in secret after running four miles on a golf course. Johansson's trainer, Whitey Blinstein, ordered him not to work out at the Miami Beach Convention Hall—site of the March 13 championship fight—because of the cold. When the challenger opened his Palm Beach training camp, promoters promised he would work out at least once a week at Miami Beach. Johansson has shown up for only one drill three weeks ago and was unhappy because of boos from the crowd.

Johansson has a day off Tuesday and, according to Blinstein, should be back in top condition Wednesday for training at Palm Beach.

Patterson will train publicly every Friday, Saturday and Sunday at a Miami Beach hotel. He will work out secretly Mondays and Thursdays.

During the secret sessions, Patterson will attempt to come up with some new tactics. He said Johansson is a "sneaky" fighter and comes up with new things.

"Johansson is a thinking fighter, so I must be a thinking fighter too," Patterson said.

John Henry, veteran sparring partner, said Patterson is a champion who keeps improving. "Floyd is punching sharper and harder... than he was at the same stage of his training for the fight last June with Johansson."

The final weekend will again be held in Twin Falls March 9 and 10.

Tournament officials noted tickets are available at the principals office in each of the eight participating schools. Tickets for both adults and students may be purchased in the fans home town. This will allow fans to go immediately through the gates without lining up at box offices and facilitate the work of the host schools.

The group maintained its stand of charging $100 for broadcasting rights to radio stations and made no other provision for those stations taking "feed" lines.

A meeting to acquaint student cheerleaders with various arrangements for the tournament, will be conducted in Twin Falls Monday noon.

Star Explains Suspension by Winter League

CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (AP)—Luis Aparicio, star shortstop for the Chicago White Sox, Monday phoned the club from New York, telling his side of a three-year suspension from playing baseball in the Caribbean area.

Aparicio, who has yet to reach 1961 contract terms with the Sox, was fined $1,000 as well as suspended three years for recently leaving his Rapidos team of Maracaibo, Venezuela, before the final game against Valencia in the inter-American series.

Guillermo Angel Lopez, president of the Western Baseball league in Maracaibo, said Aparicio demanded $500 before he would play with Rapidos in the final game, which Valencia won 2-1 to take the series.

Aparicio told Ed Short, Sox traveling secretary, that he had agreed to play only six games in the series, which went down to the final seventh.

He said he had made all transportation arrangements to fly to the side of his wife and attend the funeral of her father.

Thomas Plans Heavy Work to Beat Soviets

BOSTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—Unwilling to concede he's second best to Russian Valery Brumel—or anyone, John Thomas returned to the high jump pit Monday.

His philosophy—think in terms of 7 feet, 8 inches.

His formula—relentless, hard work.

His aim—beat Brumel.

The rematch is this Saturday in the National AAU meet in New York.

A year ago the Boston university student was unchallenged among the world's high jumpers. Yet last Friday night a 7 foot, 1 inch effort, his 58th at seven feet or higher, was well behind Brumel's 7 feet, 8 inches.

Thomas was third behind Soviet Robert Shavlakadze and Brumel at the Rome Olympics.

Minutes after his latest setback, 6 foot, 6 inch Thomas approached coach Ed Flanagan with the remark: "Coach, we have to start working all over again just like when I first came to BU."

"Brumel has succeeded in making us really go back to work," Flanagan said. "After I talked with the Russians, and learned how much practice they do daily, I'm sure now that I have been babying John in the past."

"They told me Brumel practices two hours a day, six days a week—and competes on the seventh."
